Terrie,

CAG should have included you on these comments last week (just realize they had not). I am working on responses but will call you later to discuss some items. Not sure if I will have them complete by Tuesday with the holiday time and folks out on leave but will try.

Thanks,

Hi Ed,

Just a heads-up and not a big deal, but that document is dated June 2014.

Thanks for sending these over – we'll take a look and get started on them. We have the last round of CAG questions pretty close to ready – possibly going out before the end of the week. That's my target, but could slip into next week.
